

Deborah Henson-Conant in:

HIP HARP FAMILY SHOW

SHOW TYPE: Solo (also available for orchestra)

LENGTH: 60-70 minute show (no intermission).
Two-Act shows with Intermission also available.

ENSEMBLE: One-woman show

INSTRUMENTATION: Solo Electric Strap-On Harp & Voice, Piano (or electric Keyboard) and Electric Concert Harp. This program is also available to orchestras.

SUMMARY: Deborah's brand of stand-up, kickback music and humor – but specifically for Families, with lots of sing-alongs and audience participation.

Fusing music, theater, storytelling and entertainment, Henson-Conant transports the audience to a place where dogs have cultural exchange programs, watermelons swing their hips like Elvis, the library is a place of magic, garbage men are heroes and everyone sings.

Deborah's family show features original songs and stories infused with Henson-Conant's humor and heart.

What the Press Says:

"A confident and exciting entertainer ... Deborah Henson-Conant delights in musical adventure" (CBS "Sunday Morning")

"Whatever it is that transfixes an audience, she has it." (The Boston Globe)

"Deborah Henson-Conant is why they call making music 'playing.' She's doing her job, but she's having more fun than most people have on vacation." (Grand Rapids Press)

"Effortlessly traversing genre boundaries from blues to folk, jazz to world music, she's conjuring the entire sound of a traditional Mexican street band one minute, laying into a ferocious Hendrix-inspired rock workout the next, all with equally unerring flair and finesse... As she weaves one number into the next via whimsical tales of her childhood and snippets of ancient harp lore (SW-Metro - Edinburgh, Scotland)
